JUNGIAN ODYSSEY

The Jungian Odyssey is now approaching its 4th year of success as an off-campus, English-language retreat. At this occasion ISAPZURICH opens its post-graduate program to all with interest in C.G. Jung & Analytical Psychology. Taking place each year in a different region of Switzerland, the Odyssey affords immersion in the landscapes that so influenced Jung's sense of psyche. In this setting we illuminate traditional areas of theory—dream, fairytale, expressive arts, body-mind, individuation and the collective. Moreover, theory is advanced through the presentation of new research—and through hands-on exploration of theory applied to personal development and clinical practice.

2009 DESTRUCTION & CREATION

The Jungian Odyssey 2009 takes place in Sils Maria, a tranquil village located at 5,915 ft / 1,803 m in Switzerland's Engadine valley. Cherished for its shimmering lakes, daunting peaks, brilliant light and rejuvenating air, the Engadine was a refuge for Charlie Chaplin, among others. Sils provided a retreat for Friedrich

Nietzsche, and historical guests at Hotel Waldhaus, our venue, include Thomas Mann, Hermann Hesse, Rainer Maria Rilke—and CG and Emma Jung. In this temenos we will explore the subject, Creation and Destruction: Facing the Ambiguities of Power. Aiming to uncover the archetypes' shifting and transformational energies, we will bear in mind the etymology of power in potentia—the potential to destroy, to create, perhaps even to destroy in order to create.

VENUE, COST & REGISTRATION

The 5-star Waldhaus is a 100-year-old castellated grand hotel that offers the romantic ambience of a by-gone era without sacrificing modern comforts: sauna, swimming pool, massage and more. Internet is available at cost in each room, as well as in the hotel business center. (www.waldhaus-sils/en.ch) The Odyssey fee covers • bus transport to Sils Maria and back to Zurich • all retreat events • full room & board (excluding dinners on 2 excursion dates). Travel to and from Switzerland is not included. With registration no later than 15 March 2009, the fee per person is EUR 2160 (single) or EUR 2070.00 (double). For details see the enclosed Registration Information or download at www.jungianodyssey.ch.*

* ISAP students are subject to other terms and deadlines, which are provided with the registration packet for the Spring Semester 2009.

EXCURSIONS

Fex Tal, www.swiss-image.ch

The Romantic Fex Tal

The entrance of Hotel Waldhaus is also the portal to the Fex Tal, one of the Engadine's most beautiful valleys. The Fex Tal affords an easy walk along a traffic-free country road, where the unspoiled nature is interrupted only by the hoofbeat of horse-drawn carriages. Historically the Fex Tal offered routes for south-bound smugglers!

Nietzsche House

[In Sils at] last, I have found ... refuge in the loveliest spot on earth: I never had it so quiet, and all 50 conditions of my poor life appear to be met here. I take this discovery both as an unexpected and undeserved gift. (Nietzsche, KSB, 6, No. 122)

From 1881–1888 Friedrich Nietzsche summered in Sils Maria, finding a place that made his suffering more bearable—and the concentration to write much of Thus Spake Zarathustra. Today the Nietzsche House exhibits a number of his original manuscripts, letters and first editions. A walk along the Lake of Sils to Silvaplana follows Nietzsche's trail to the renowned boulder that inspired his idea of the "eternal return."

Robbi Museum

This museum is a small jewel devoted to exhibiting the few but remarkable works of Andrea Robbi (1864-1945), a re-discovered painter and native of Sils Maria. When his own father died, Robbi seems to have looked on Nietzsche as a surrogate. Nietzsche's death is speculated to have influenced Robbi's decline, which led him to spend his last fifty years in total and abject isolation.

Segantini Museum

A trip to St. Moritz aims at a visit to the Segantini Museum. The museum was built in 1908 in celebration of the great Swiss artist, Giovanni Segantini (1858-1899), who spent the last five years of his life living and painting in the Engadine. Housing the world's largest collection of Segantini's works, the museum exhibits his famous, large-scale Life—Death—Nature.

ISAPZURICH

The International School of Analytical Psychology Zurich, ISAPZURICH, was established in 2004 under the authority of the Association of Graduate Analytical Psychologists (AGAP International), a Swiss-domiciled, professional society founded in 1954. AGAP is a member of the International Association of Analytical Psychology (IAAP) with training privileges. To date AGAP counts over 500 members worldwide. Donations to AGAP for ISAP are exempt from general communal, cantonal and federal tax in Switzerland. ISAP is a member of the Swiss Charta for Psychotherapy, and is thereby recognized by the Health Department of Canton Zurich as a psychotherapy training institution.

On the home turf of the renowned psychologist CG Jung, ISAPZURICH conducts full-time post-graduate training that leads to a Diploma in Analytical Psychology. True to the Zurich tradition ISAP's faculty members, guest instructors and trainees from around the world enrich the program with a variety of professional and cultural backgrounds. Lectures and seminars are held in German and English, while personal analysis and supervision are conducted in a number of other languages. Graduates of the diploma program qualify to apply for membership in AGAP and the IAAP. As IAAP members ISAP graduates are entitled to professional practice as Jungian analysts and psychotherapists, depending on regional laws.

ISAPZURICH reaches out to a greater community by opening its regular lectures and the Jungian Odyssey to the general public. Continuing education is offered for general interest, as well as for professionals within and outside of the field of psychology. ISAP's Counseling Service holds confidential, cost-free consultations with individuals seeking analysis or psychotherapy, and refers them to ISAP analysts or diploma candidates of the training program. Therapy and analysis are offered in a number of languages.
