

Friday, 6 November • 15:00–16:45

Irene Berkenbusch-Erbe, Dr. phil.

My Path to Becoming a Therapist in Analytical Psychology

It all began during my school days when my teacher explained C.G. Jung's concept of the collective unconscious and the origin of dreams. This has fascinated me ever since, just as it intrigues many students of Jungian psychology. We are in a permanent relationship and dialogue with ourselves and our patients.

In these casual talks each semester, ISAP analysts offer glimpses into their personal approaches to Jungian analysis.
