

Jungian Odyssey 2021 • General Terms & Conditions

The variety of packages for the Jungian Odyssey include the programs and services described at our website www.jungianodyssey.com and in the downloadable Brochure. Further:

- (1) Enrollment is limited and granted on a first-come-first-serve basis. Your place at the Odyssey will be confirmed upon our receipt of your registration form and paid fees.
- (2) With our confirmation of your placement, we provide a sign-up form for seminars and workshops. Your top choices are granted as space allows. You will be notified about your course placements on arrival at the Odyssey.
- (3) The rule of confidentiality applies for our Temenos and all seminars and workshops that deal with case material. For the protection of personal boundaries, experiential workshops (W+) are excluded for analysts of ISAPZÜRICH and all others who anticipate or encounter their analysands, patients, or supervisees at these events.
- (4) The daily program may be subject to change, within limits.
- (5) ISAPZÜRICH-AGAP (hereafter ISAP) is unable to provide discounts or refunds for your partial use of program events and services that are included in Odyssey packages.
- (6) Cancellation & Refunds for All Packages: With your fully cancelled registration in due time, ISAP will refund your payment as follows:

Refund of your payment minus a fee to cover ISAP's administration, our incurred banking or credit card fees, and eventual hotel cancellation fees. With your cancellation:

All Registrations & Packages

ISAP declines all liability for cancelled flights and other personal travel, and for illness or injury incurred during the Odyssey. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have an insurance policy and/or a credit card policy that covers such eventualities.

ISAP reserves the right to cancel the Jungian Odyssey due to under-enrollment or catastrophic events. In such a case we notify you as soon as possible and credit 100% of your paid fees toward a future Odyssey—or refund 98% of your paid fees. (The deducted 2% covers only our incurred banking or credit card fees.)
